

What's the main driver for retrofitting the UK's historic buildings?

On a scale of 1-10, how concerned are you that the new policies proposed here for carbon reduction in historic buildings would cause harm?

[10 is very concerned and 1 is not at all concerned]

What changes could have the most impact on carbon reduction from historic buildings?

[Pick top two]

